

Streamline your Quest Diagnostics experience with Quantum™ for Healthcare Professionals

Introducing a single website for all your lab testing needs

From patient services to billing and collections to lab-related tasks, you face many daily challenges. Now your interactions with Quest Diagnostics don't have to be one of them.

We've made it easier for you to manage all of your laboratory needs from one location with Quantum for Healthcare Professionals. Our new website is free, intuitive, and as easy-to-use as a retail shopping site, allowing you to order and track lab tests online, among other tasks.

With Quantum for Healthcare Professionals, you and your practice benefit from:

NEW

- Lab test ordering in just 3 clicks—faster and helps prevent errors
- Order tracking—know when we've received your order and when to expect results
- Supply ordering—find and identify the right items, so you get what you need faster
- Online specimen pickup—for easy scheduling
- Enhanced results—historical trending and clinically relevant insights

Accessible on any device:
QuestDiagnostics.com/QuantumHCP

When you work with us online, you can simplify practice operations, save staff time, and prevent disruptions.

Less searching, less calling, less faxing. Now it's easier to get your lab-related needs met.

Quantum for Healthcare Professionals makes it easier to work with Quest, and it can be used by anyone in your practice, no matter your office setup. You'll save staff time and prevent disruptions—freeing you to focus on other critical tasks.
